The Project Management Practitioner short course hones in on how to pull together a project by equipping you with a range of proven strategies to manage the governance and integration of composite projects.

Location: Melbourne
Date: 25-26 Jun 2015
AIM Member: $1750
Non Member: $1950
Enrol Now

DETAILS

Overview

This course is right for you if:
You are a project manager looking to undertake formal training or preparing to transition to a program management role.

Your employer will benefit because:
You will be equipped with the vital skills required to successfully develop and implement projects, while simultaneously managing project teams effectively.

Duration:
2 days

This AIM course was previously called Advanced Project Management and Integrated Project Management.

To view dates and prices choose your Location from the drop down option above. For Melbourne dates remaining in 2014, please note this course is delivered 1 day a week over 2 weeks (only the start date appears in the drop down above). Please contact AIM on 1300 658 337 for details of these deliveries.

For courses in Perth please visit the AIM WA website (http://www.aimwa.com/Programs_Seminars_Events/Management_and_Leadership.aspx).

OVERVIEW

Learning Outcomes

Accreditation

Our Facilitators

Inclusions

Need more information?

If you would like assistance with your course selection fill in the form below or call 1300 658 337.

First Name
Last Name
Email
Company
My state...
Mobile
My training needs are...
Call AIM on 1300 658 337
Locations > (/locations)
Enquire Now
Privacy Policy & Collection Statement (/privacy)